

Live Fire Training Fixed Facility Credential

September 8-10, 2017

Hosted By:

International Society of Fire Service Instructors
City of Virginia Beach Fire Department

The ISFSI Live fire Instructor Credential Program is a unique blend of distance learning and an intense 3-day hands on academy focusing on the responsibilities of instructors charged with important safety duties of a live fire instructor. This course is based on the NFPA 1403 Standard on Live fire Training for its content and references Live Fire Instructor Principles and Practices by Jones & Bartlett as its text. Students will complete an extensive on-line course prior to the hands on portion and will challenge a series of written and practical examinations to earn this 3 year credential.

Who Should Attend:

Training Officers, Instructors, Officers and firefighters who are interested in making a difference in the creation and execution of state and controlled live fire training.

Why Should You Attend:

Any organization or individual who has responsibility to conduct live fire training evolutions in permanent burn towers needs to know that this course will make their jobs easier and more effective. Knowledge and understanding of the NFPA standards that apply along with common sense and practical skill training make this a valuable program to every student. The ISFSI uses a blended learning approach complementing on-line pre-course education setting up a 3 day validation course where each student is placed in live fire training student and instructor roles. Learn from experienced instructors and practitioner's who participated in the development of curriculums, policies and standards that have shaped today's live fire training environment. Resources and networking allow each participant to gain the skills and knowledge to develop or refine their live fire training practices for their burn towers.

Student Prerequisites:

- Must be an AHJ credentialed Firefighter & AHJ credentialed Instructor
- Minimum of one (1) year as an instructor
- Successful completion of online pre-course examination
 - Signed Liability waiver
 - Signed Instructor Qualification form
